1. ACOSTA, Chr. Trattato della historia, natura et virtù delle droghe medicinali et altri semplici, che vengono portati dalle Indie Orientali. 26 leaves, 340 pp. With 45 full-page woodcuts showing plants. 4to. Old limp vellum. Venice, 1585. U. S. A. Dollars 22.00 net.

Pritzel 13. First Italian edition. Acosta's principal work (Trattato) is still regarded as an important and authoritative work on the subject of medicine and drugs. The interesting woodcuts illustrate many Asiatic plants.

2. AGRICOLA, G. De re metallica libri XII, quibus officia, instrumenta, machinae ac omnia denisque ad metallicam spectantia describuntur. De animalibus subterraneis liber. 7 leaves, 708 pp., 46 leaves. With about 250 full-page and other large woodcuts illustrating machinery and processes in mining and metallurgy. Folio. Original vellum. Basel, 1657. $ 50.00

An unusually fine and fresh copy. — This beautiful work on mining and metallurgy, is of great importance as the first comprehensive one on this subject. The numerous woodcuts give the first exhaustive pictorial account of the machinery and processes then in vogue.

3. ALBERTI, S. Historia plerarumque partium humani corporis. 8 leaves, 121 pp., 1 leaf. With three folding plates, four fullpage woodcuts and 23 smaller woodcuts, showing anatomical details. 8vo. Modern half vellum. Wittenberg, 1585. $ 48.00

Choulant-Frank, p. 217. An uncommon anatomical work and an interesting Vesalianum. "Alberti's Historia partium corporis humani contains about 30 most peculiar illustrations, large and small, in rather crude woodcuts" (Choul-Frank). — Nice copy. Rare.

4. ALEXANDER Aphrodisiensis. Super nonnullis physicis quaestionibus solutionum liber. — Plutarchi narrationes. 4 and 36 leaves. With woodcut border and Cratander's device on verso of the last leaf. Quarto. Modern half vellum. Basel, Cratander, 1520. $ 18.00

Of medical interest. We mention: Aegritudines cur plures sunt. Infans decem menses in matrice permanens. Calculus curatio. Theriaca, ex quibus conficiant. Ulcera rotunda. Etc. Etc. — Beautifully printed. — A few light waterstains.

5. ARETAEUS CAPPADOX. Libri septem, a J. Crasso in latinum versi. 8 leaves, 286 pp., 25 leaves. 8vo. Old half vellum. Strassburg, 1768. $ 7.50

"Aretaeus is the most important source for the teachings of the Pneumatic school. He is easily the most attractive medical author of his time" (Garrison).

AND ABSOLUTELY NET.

6. ARISTOTELES. De animalibus. De natura, et generatione animalium. Interprete T. Gaza. Roman letter. 62 lines. 95 leaves. Folio. Half calf. Venice, Bartholomaeus de Zanis for Octavianus Scotus, 1498. $ 95. 00

Hain-Copinger 1703. Pellechet 1208. Proctor 5341. Brit. Mus. Cat. V, p. 433. Gesamtkatalog 2353. Vouillême, Berlin 4259. "In his three great biological works, the 'History of animals', the 'Parts of animals', and the 'Generation of animals', Aristoteles discusses many biological problems current to this very day. He laid the basis of the doctrine of organic evolution in his teaching concerning the 'scala naturae' he developed coherent theories of generation and heredity, and he founded comparative anatomy" (Singer, Anatomy).

7. ARTEMIDORUS, D. De somniorum interpretatione libri quinque. J. Cornario latine conscripti. 480 pp. 8vo. Old half calf. Basel, Froben, 1539. $ 26. 00
Rare first Latin translation of this important work on dreams.

Artemidorus "spent many years in travelling up and down to get acquainted with Fortune-tellers. ... He devoted all his time and thoughts to this science of dreams, and thought his great labour had enabled him to warrant his interpretations by reason and experience" (Bayle, nr. 6883).

8. BACON, Fr. Opera omnia, philosophica, moralia, historico-politica. 9 leaves, 1324 cols., 15 leaves. With engraved portrait. Folio. Original half calf. Frankfurt, 1655. $ 14. 00

Good edition. — Partly slightly browned.

9. BAGELLARDUS, P. Opusculum recens natum de morbis puerorum, cum appendicibus Petri Toleti. — Oddo de Oddi. De prandii et coenae ratione. — Toleti de podagra. 8 leaves, 238 pp., 1 leaf. 8vo. Lyons, 1538. $ 68. 00

Very rare. First octavo-edition of the first treatise on diseases of children. — Sudhoff, Paediatric XXI-II. Ruhrach, Pediatrics of the Past, p. 576 (under Toletus). "The work is divided into two parts: the first is on the management of infants in the first months; the second is in twenty-two chapters. — Append to the Bagellardus text will be found what may be regarded as the most important part of his book, his own consideration of diseases not mentioned by Bagellardus" (Ruhrach).

10. BAGLIVI, G. Opera omnia medico-practica et anatomica. Acc. de vegetatione lapidum. 28 leaves, 692 pp. With the author's portrait, one plate and four woodcuts in the text. 4to. Old calf (worn). Lyons, 1704. $ 3. 25

11. BAUHINUS, C. De corporis humani partibus externis tractatus hactenus non editus. 8 leaves, 64 pp. Small 8vo. Modern half vellum. Basel, 1588. $ 21. 00

First edition. This anatomical text-book was very esteemed in these times and very often reprinted. Rare.

12. BERENGARIO, Jacopo, da Carpi. Isagogae in anatomiam humani corporis. 136 leaves. With 24 partly full-page woodcuts of anatomical interest. Small 8vo. Modern vellum. (Strassburg, H. Sybold, 1530). $ 215. 00

Choulant-Frank p. 140 (without having seen a copy citing this very edition only from the hearsay). Berengario's Isagoge is one of the rarest and undoubtedly the most important of the very few pre-vesalian anatomical works. It is an anatomic compendium intended to take the place of Mundinus' compendium (published in 1521). — Copies of the present, precious edition have been offered for sale for the equivalent of $ 400.00 and more. — Very fine copy.

13. BERENGARIO, J. da Carpi. De fractura cranei tractatus perutilis et completus. 101 (106) leaves, 1 leaf. Wit beautiful woodcut (man's head), and several very interesting woodcuts (surgical instruments) in the text. 4to. Half vellum. Venice, 1535. $ 54. 00

Very rare edition of one of the earliest works on the anatomy and surgery of the skull. — Our copy lacks five leaves, besides complete with all figures which represent the special feature of the book. The book is extremely rare and the few extant copies have been priced at $ 95.00 and more.

14. BERETTINI, P. Tabulae anatomicae, recensuit Fr. Petraglia. 16 pp., 104 pp. With large engraving on the title, showing the transfusion of blood, and 27 excellent copper-plates. Large folio. Original calf. Rome 1788. $ 54. 00

Choulant-Frank, p. 238. Magnificent anatomical atlas. "In this (second) edition all the accessory figures on the first 19 plates are erased, so that the original figures stand out better. This edition, although it contains the later prints, is to be preferred to the first edition" (Choulant-Frank).

OUR GREATLY REDUCED PRICES ARE IN U. S. A. DOLLARS AND ABSOLUTELY NET.

15. BERNARD LE TREVISAN. De chymico miraculo. 3 leaves, 198 pp. 8vo. Half vellum. Basel, 1583. $ 16.00

Caillet quotes only later editions. "Bernard of Trevisa's writings were once in great request by alchemists, and are still interesting for the account they give of the early alchemists, and of their great pains and expenses to arrive at an unsuccessful result". — Rare.

16. BERNOUILLI, J. De motu musculorum, de effervescentia et fermentatione dissertationes physico-mechanicae. 12 leaves, 123 pp. With folding plate. 4to. Venice, 1721. — MICHELOTTI, P. A. De separatione fluidorum in corpore animali. Allegoric frontisp., 4 leaves, 362 pp., 1 leaf. With folding plate. 4to. Venice, 1721. Two different works. Calf. $ 11.50

Fulton, Muscular Contraction, p. 28. — Bernouilli's chief work.

17. BOCK (Tragus), H. De stirpium usitatis nomenclaturis, propriisque differentiis, commentariorum libri tres. Acc. praefationes duae; altera Conradi Gesneri rei herbariae scriptorum catalogum complectens. Two vols. 34 leaves, 1200 pp., 32 leaves. With the author's splendid fullpage portrait (twice in the two vols. of our copy, inserted before the title) and about 520 beautiful woodcuts of plants, all entirely free of colour, partly by David Kandel. 4to. Nice 18th century half calf. Strassburg, 1552. $ 110.00

Pritzel 867. Schreiber, Kräuterbücher, 43. — First Latin edition of this splendid herbal. With the interesting "Index autorum rei herbariae" by Konrad Gesner and index of plants in six languages. — Some leaves with short upper margins, but an unusually fine and exceptionally fresh copy.

18. BOERHAAVE, H. Tractatus de viribus medicamentorum. — ABERCROMBY, D. Nova medicinae tum speculativae, tum practicae clavis. 70 pp., 564 pp., 43 pp., 2 leaves. 8vo. Original calf. Paris, 1740. $ 4.50

19. BOERHAAVE, H. De morbis oculorum. 4 leaves, 366 pp., 5 leaves. With four plates. 8vo. Original calf. Paris, 1748. $ 5.50

20. BOKELIUS, J. Anatome vel descriptio partium humani corporis. 8 leaves, 233 pp., 8 leaves. 8vo. Modern half vellum. Helmstadt, 1588. $ 32.00
Feyfer, D. nr. 9. — A rare work by this German physician, based on Vesalius. We mention: De ossibus, de musculis, de auditus organo, de chylo, de organis generationis, de formatione foetus, motu et situ, de partu, de pulmone, de corde, etc. — Very fine copy with a few unopened leaves.

21. BOOT, Boetius de. Gemmarum et lapidum historia. Auxit A. Toll. 4 leaves, 576 pp., 12 leaves. With numerous, interesting woodcuts and two folding tables. 8vo. Original vellum. Leyden, 1636. $ 10.00

First Latin edition. Contains a chapter on American gems (p. 33 sq.). Also of great medical interest as describing the medical virtues of gems and minerals. — Fine copy.

22. CASSERIUS, Giulio. De vocis auditusque organis historia anatomica. Two parts in one vol. 30 leaves, 191 pp., 126 pp., 1 leaf. With magnificent historiated frontispiece showing skeletons, ornaments, etc., the two excellent portraits of the Duke Ranutius Farnese and the author (which are usually missing), and 33 splendid copper-plates (twenty-two dealing with vocal organs, eleven with the ear). Large folio. Vellum. Ferrara, 1601-1600. $ 105.00

Choulant-Frank p. 223-4. — A wonderful union of scientific accuracy with artistic perfection was attained in the anatomical works of Giulio Casserio, Harvey's teacher at Padua. — Complete copies, as ours, with the portraits and all plates are of particular rarity. A standard work in the history of anatomy.

23. CELSUS. De arte medica libri octo. Ed. by G. Pantinus. 6 leaves, 564 pp., 18 leaves. Folio. Original vellum. Basel, J. Oporinus, 1552. $ 14.50

Choulant, Handbuch p. 169. — "Celsus was the first important writer on medical history" (Garrison). — First leaves waterstained. Oporinus' name on the title cancelled.

OUR GREATLY REDUCED PRICES ARE IN U. S. A. DOLLARS AND ABSOLUTELY NET.

24. CHIRURGIA. De chirurgia scriptores optimi quique veteres et recentiores. (Edited by Knr. Gesner). 10 leaves, 408 leaves, 2 leaves, 19 leaves. With many fine woodcuts, six of which are full-page. Folio. In the fine original binding of richly decorated half vellum showing three different borders. Zurich, A. and J. Gessner, 1555. $ 72.00

Choulant, Handbuch, p. 418. — A standard work. — Very esteemed collection, containing the following treatises: Tagaultius, Institutiones chirurgicae; Hollerius, Institutiones chirurgicae; Marianus Sanctus, Compendium chirurgiae; Angelus Bologninus, De cura ulcerum exteriorum; Maggi, De vulneribus sclopetorum curatione; Ferri, De sclopetorum vulneribus; Galenus, De fasciis; etc. Of special interest are the numerous woodcuts representing surgical instruments, operations etc. — At the end an extensive bio-bibliographical account of the most celebrated surgeons of all times, by Gessner. — Two insignificant repairs in the upper margins of the last two leaves of the index, but an exceptionally fine and tall copy in the same fresh and untouched condition as just issued from the press.

25. CRASSI COLLECTIO. Medici antiqui Graeci. Aretaeus. Palladius. Rufus. (Anatomical nomenclature). Theophilus. Partim nunquam partim antea, sed nunc auctiores editi. A J. P. Crasso Latio d nati. Acc. Stephanus Atheniensis et Crassi questiones medicae. 4 leaves, 298 pp., 17 leaves, 212 pp. 24 leaves. Stout 4to. Vellum. Basel, 1581. $ 32.50

First edition. Choulant, Handbuch, p. 409. Fine and complete copy of the rare « Collectio Crassi ». « Rufus of Ephesus' "On the naming of the parts of the body" (here contained) is the first work devoted to the important subject of anatomical nomenclature » (Singer). — Complete copies, as ours, containing all parts, are of particular rarity.

26. CRESCENTIUS, P. de. De agricultura, omnibusque plantarum et animalium generibus libri XII. 20 leaves, 564 pp., 1 leaf. 4to. Vellum. Basel, 1538. $ 15.00

The 12 parts deal with: I: products of the fields, their use and culture; II: with the nature of plants; III: with the products of the fields; IV: with the grape-vine; V: with trees; VI: with gardens and plants (describing upwards of 120 plants useful for medicine and nourishment); etc.

27. DESCARTES, R. De homine. 18 leaves, 124 pp. With 10 excellent anatomical plates (the plate of the heart with superimposed movable flaps), over 30 engravings and about 20 woodcuts in the text. 4to. Original vellum. Leyde, 1664. $ 24.00

« The De homine, is usually regarded as the first European text-book on physiology. Descartes grasped the dynamic importance of Harvey's discovery ». — A few leaves brownstained, blank portion of the title cut off, besides good copy of this standard work.

28. DESCARTES, R. Epistolae. Partim ab auctore latino sermone conscriptae, partim ex Gallico translatae. Three parts in two volumes. With numerous woodcuts (mostly diagrams). 4to. Modern half vellum. Amsterdam, 1682-83. $ 11.50

First collected Latin edition of Descartes' letters, with the third volume which is often missing. Contains a. o. the following letters on medicine: "De motu cordis et circulatione sanguinis (6 letters), de glandula Conarion dicta", etc. — Some leaves browned.

29. DIOSCORIDES. De medica materia libri sex. J. Ruellio interprete. 20 leaves, 480 pp., 72 leaves. 8vo. Old limp vellum. Basel, 1542. $ 9.50

The work, which is without any text, contains 17 splendid illustrations after the Vesalian plates, which, at that time, by mistake, were still attributed to Titian. — Inner margins of several leaves strengthened, the stained title repaired without affecting the text, a few stains, besides a large and complete copy. A copy of this edition has been offered recently for the equivalent of $ 260.00

130. (VESALIUS). — BORGARUCCI, Pr. Andreae Vesalii chirurgia magna. 26 leaves, 476 leaves. With 23 most interesting, partly full-page woodcuts showing skeletons, surgical instruments, etc. Stout 8vo. Old limp vellum. Venice, 1568. $ 110. 00

First edition. Excessively rare and of great interest. — Bibl. Osl. 588. "The work is divided into seven books. Book one treats of luxations and their replacement; book two, fractures and their treatment; book three, wounds; book four, the treatment of ulcer; book five, the subject of tumors; book six is an antidotary; book seven considers surgical medicaments". — One leaf badly stained, light waterstains on margins of some leaves towards the end of the book. Former owner's inscription on the title.

131. VESALIUS, A. — LEVELING, H. P. Anatomische Erklarung der Originalfiguren von Andreas Vesal. 14 leaves, 328 pp. With frontispiece (Vesalius dissecting), engraved portrait of Leveling, two folding-woodcut plates, and numerous, partly full-page anatomical woodcuts. Folio. Half calf. Ingolstadt, 1783. $ 34. 00

Choulant-Frank p. 185. Spielmann p. 224: "With re-impressions of the original-woodcuts in the Fabrica". — This work was prepared by Leveling at the request of the chief physician von Wolter, who had acquired all the original woodcuts from Vesalius' anatomic works. Contains the older woodcut-title of 1543 and all the woodcuts of the edition of the chief-work of 1555" (Choul.-Frk.).

This edition of this fundamental work which from its first edition of 1761 remained unappreciated and unobserved until its revival through Corvisart in 1808, is only very little known. Except the edition of 1763 (copies of which are quite undiscoverable and equally rare as copies of the 1761 edition), and Rozier's Manuel des pulmoniques, Paris 1770, our present edition of 1775 is the only one of this fundamental work between 1761 and 1808. Apparently our edition has been remained undiscovered as contained in the first volume (pp. 316-361) of the "Fasciculus operum minorum medicorum et dissertationum", published 1775 by Fr. von Wasserberg and printed by the same printer who printed the first edition of Auenbrugger's work, viz. Th. Tratter. It is, word for word, a reprint of the original edition of 1761.

140. BOURDET. (On teeth). Cure facile per la pulitezza della bocca, e per la conservazione de' denti. 107 pp. 8vo. Original wrappers. Naples, 1782. $ 9. 75

143. GALILEI, G. Istoria e dimostrazioni intorno alle macchie solari e loro accidenti.... Si aggiungono nel fine le lettere, e disquisizioni del finto Apelle. 4 pp., 164 pp., 56 pp. With the famous portrait by Villamoena, 44 fullpage engravings, four engravings in the text, one folding plate and 17 woodcuts in the text. Small 4to. Original vollum. Romo, Mascardi, 1613. $ 210.00

First edition of one of the most important books in the history of science. — Contains Galileo's discovery of the sun-spots. It seems to be unknown to the bibliographers that there are two different issues of the first edition of this work, published in the same year (1613). Our edition is exceedingly rare. Even in Riccardi's copious list of Galileo's works our present edition has not been described. It differs considerably from the one described by Riccardi, by having an Appendix of 56 pp., with additional plates, entitled: "De maculis solaribus tres epistolae". The author of those letters was the Jesuit-Father Scheiner, who claimed to be the real discoverer of the sun-spots. These letters are not contained in the so-called first edition, described by Riccardi. —

A copy of this second issue of the first edition has been offered in a most recent catalogue for the equivalent of $ 1,000.00 Excellent copy of this standard work.

144. LAENNEC, R. T. H. Traité de l'auscultation médiante et des maladies des pmons et du coeur. Three vols. With 10 copperplates, two of which coloured. 8vo. Original half calf. Paris, 1837. $ 34.00

The most complete edition, with critical notes by Laennec and Andral. Besides this edition has two coloured plates not found in previous ones showing woundings of lungs. — Fine copy.

145. SEVERINUS, M. De efficaci medicina. 7 leaves, 297 pp., 7 leaves. With several surgical woodcuts Folio. Old calf (damaged). Frankfurt, 1646 $ 6.50

Important surgical work. "Severinus (1580 - 1656), surgeon at Naples, was a skilful operator and forerunner of modern comparative anatomists" (Power-Thompson). — Entirely browned as usual.

146. TABERNAEMONTANUS, J. Th. (New Herbal in German). Neu Kreuterbuch/ mit schoenen Figuren aller Gewaechs etc. — Das ander Theyl. — Two parts. I: 22 leaves, 818 pp., 1 leaf, 10 leaves. II: 6 leaves, 882 pp., 20 leaves. With many hundreds of nice, large woodcuts of plants, free of any colour. Very stout folio. Original binding of wooden boards covered with calf. The binding which is closed by its original clasps shows on its four corners beautiful brass-mountings and in the centre another very fine brass-work. Frankfurt, 1588-1591. $ 60.00

Fine and complete copy containing both parts of the first edition of this fine herbal, complete copies of which are very rare. — Pritzel 9093. Contains indices in ten different languages. — The title slightly stained and carefully mounted, some leaves insignificantly browned. A fine and absolutely complete copy with the woodcuts free of any colour.
